

Is Time Running Out?

A person is shown from the waist down, wearing a dark jacket and light-colored pants, holding a large, thick Bible with a brown cover. They are standing on a dirt path in a grassy field. The background is a soft-focus landscape with green grass and a clear sky.

Is Time Running Out?

To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven:

Ecclesiastes 3:1

Today's task

What profit has the worker from that in which he labors?

Ecclesiastes 3:9

I have seen the God-given task with which the sons of men are to be occupied.

Ecclesiastes 3:10

He has made everything beautiful in its time. Also He has put eternity in their hearts, except that no one can find out the work that God does from beginning to end.

Ecclesiastes 3:11

I know that nothing is better for them than to rejoice, and to do good in their lives,

Ecclesiastes 3:12

And also that everyman should eat and drink and enjoy that good of all his labor-it is the gift of God.

Ecclesiastes 3:13

I know that whatever God does,
It shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, And nothing taken from it. God does it, that men should fear before Him.

Ecclesiastes 3:14

That which is has already been,
And what is to be has already been; And God requires an account of what is past.

Ecclesiastes 3:15

Moreover I saw under the sun:
In the place of judgment,
Wickedness was there;
And in the place of righteousness,
Iniquity was there.

Ecclesiastes 3:16

I said in my heart, “God shall judge the righteous and the wicked, For there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.”

Ecclesiastes 3:17

I said in my heart, “Concerning the condition of the sons of men, God tests them, that they may see that they themselves are like animals.”

Ecclesiastes 3:17

So I perceived that nothing is better than that a man should rejoice in his own works, for that is his heritage. For who can bring him to see what will happen after him?
