Do you ever pretend to be someone or something you are not?

The Sermon on the Mount

Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Matthew 7:5

The Sermon on the Mount

“Judge not, that you be not judged.

Matthew 7:1

Can you read the heart?

“Do not look at his appearance or at his physical stature, because I have refused him.

1 Samuel 16:7A

For the LORD does not see as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

1 Samuel 16:7B

Don't judge a book by its cover

A close-up photograph of several bright orange fruits hanging from a tree with green leaves. The background is softly blurred, showing more of the tree and a hint of a bright sky. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

“You will know them
by their fruits.”

Mt. 7:16

“Judge not, that you be not judged.

Matthew 7:1

For with what judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with the measure you use, it will be measured back to you.

Matthew 7:2

And why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but do not consider the plank in your own eye?

Matthew 7:3

Gossip?

Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye'; and look, a plank is in your own eye?

Matthew 7:4

Jesus has the solution

Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother's eye.

Matthew 7:5

“Do not give what is holy to the dogs; nor cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.

Matthew 7:6

Spend your time where you can be effective.
