1 John 4:8

...God is love

Isaiah 44:2

Thus says the LORD who made you
And formed you from the womb, who will help you:

Matthew 10:30

But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.

THE RETURN OF JESUS

Likened to a new life

A woman, when she is in labor, has sorrow because her hour has come; but as soon as she has given birth to the child,

John 16:21a

she no longer remembers the anguish, for joy that a human being has been born into the world.

John 16:21b

A new life changes everything.

Therefore you now have sorrow; but I will see you again and your heart will rejoice, and your joy no one will take from you.

John 16:22

Isaiah 49:15

“Can a woman forget her nursing child, And not have compassion on the son of her womb?
Surely they may forget, Yet I will not forget you.

MATRIPHAGY

1 Kings 3:26A

Then the woman whose son was living spoke to the king, for she yearned with compassion for her son; and she said, “O my lord, give her the living child, and by no means kill him!”

1 Kings 3:26B

But the other said, “Let him be neither mine nor yours, but divide him.”

A silhouette of a mother holding her child up in the air, set against a bright, glowing sunset background. The scene is captured in a soft, warm light, emphasizing the emotional connection between the mother and child.

The rightful mother was willing to sacrifice raising her child so it could live. Now mother is reunited with child.

Love suffers long and is kind;
love does not envy; love does not parade itself, is not puffed up;

1 Corinthians 13:4

does not behave rudely, does not seek its own, is not provoked,
thinks no evil;

1 Corinthians 13:5

does not rejoice in iniquity,
but rejoices in the truth;

1 Corinthians 13:6

bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

1 Corinthians 13:7

A photograph of a brown hen with three chicks in a natural setting. The hen is the central focus, with her body and head clearly visible. She has a red comb and wattle. Three chicks are positioned around her: one is tucked under her wing, another is to her left, and a third is in the foreground. The ground is covered with dry leaves and twigs, and there is some green foliage in the background.

Sometimes a hen must protect her chicks.

A photograph of a brown hen with several small chicks in a field of dry grass and green leaves. The hen is in the center, looking to the left. Several chicks are scattered around her, some under her wings. The background is a mix of dry grass and green leaves.

“How often I wanted to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings...”

Matthew 23:37

DORM ROOM

The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge, But fools despise wisdom and instruction.

Proverbs 1:7

My son, hear the instruction of your father, And do not forsake the law
of your mother;

Proverbs 1:8

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.

3 John 1:4

The Adventist Home

ELLEN G. WHITE

The mother is queen of her household. She has in her power the molding of her children's characters, that they may be fitted for the higher, immortal life.

The Adventist Home

ELLEN G. WHITE

An angel could not ask for a higher mission; for in doing this work she is doing service for God. Let her only realize the high character of her task, and it will inspire her with courage.

Adventist Home P. 231.3

The Adventist Home

ELLEN G. WHITE

Let her realize the worth of her work and put on the whole armor of God, that she may resist the temptation to conform to the world's standard. Her work is for time and for eternity.
